In Memoriam.

Edward W. Tapp.

The Board of Managers at a meeting held February 8, 1888, adopted the following

MINUTE :

A friend of the poor, a helper of the helpless, a faithful follower of the blessed Master, who went about doing good, has been called away from active duty here to a higher service above. Edward William Tapp, a member of our Board for many years, and more recently filling an important place on our Executive Committee, has gone from long years of faithful work on earth to his glorious reward. There are many fields of usefulness that will miss his untiring labors. His unselfish devotion to our Association, and his sturdy common sense, made his presence among us a welcome source of help and strength, and he has left for us, and for all who knew him, a green and grateful memory as a priceless treasure for all the coming time.

Resolved, That this minute be entered of record and a copy be sent to the family of our departed friend, with the assurance of our hearty sympathy with them in this hour of our common bereavement.

In Memoriam.

Alfred S. Barnes.

The Board of Managers at a meeting held April 11, 1888, adopted the following

MINUTE:

For many years Mr. Alfred S. Barnes, one of our honored Vice-Presidents, has been a warm friend of this Association, having greatly at heart our work of improving the poor. He not only endorsed the methods adopted by this Association in its ministry to those needing help, but was ever ready to aid us with his counsel and gifts.

When we take a wider outlook we find him foremost among the leading men of this city in all that has contributed to its material prosperity, or the moral elevation of the people. He was distinguished alike for graciousness of manner and for sterling integrity of character; and his exemplary life is a model worthy of the closest imitation. He has left a memory that will abide among us for succeeding generations as an unfailing benediction.

Your committee recommend that this minute be entered of record and be sent with the expression of the hearty sympathy of all the members of the Board, to the bereaved family who share with us this common loss.

PROCEEDINGS

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Forty-fifth Annual Meeting of the "Brooklyn Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor," was held on Wednesday evening, October 3, 1888.

Mr. David M. Stone was appointed Chairman, and Mr. John A. Nexsen was chosen Secretary.

The Annual Report was read by the Secretary and adopted as the report of the Society; and the Board of Managers was authorized to print twelve thousand copies for distribution.

The Treasurer's Account was read and accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Annual Report.

The Auditing Committee reported that they had examined the Treasurer's Account with the vouchers, and found it correct. Their report was accepted, and the Committee discharged.

The Board of Managers for the ensuing year was then elected by a unanimous vote.

The minutes of this meeting having been read and approved, the Society adjourned.

JOHN A. NEXSEN,
Secretary.

 The balance on hand is the fund necessary to continue the operations of the Association from this date until the treasury is replenished from the coming collections. But for this fund the Association would be obliged to run largely into debt every autumn. as the opening expenses anticipate the receipts by two or three months.

FORTY-FIFTH

ANNUAL REPORT.

Once again the Brooklyn Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor invites the attention of the residents of this city to the résumé of a year's work.

The "Principles and Objects" which are published with this report, give so clear an abstract of the Association's aims, that it is not necessary to recapitulate them in substance here.

As the report, however, always reaches some for the first time, we may enlarge, somewhat, by showing how the Association is made up, and along what line its efforts are directed.

All residents of Brooklyn who contribute money, professional services, clothing, goods or personal labor, are thereby constituted members, and as such have a right to send applicants to our society for assistance. As members, by their votes, they may also participate in the election of officers and managers. As all citizens are so eligible for membership it follows that the Association is unsectarian, and its only creed the precept, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

The object pursued for the past forty years has been to avoid pauperizing those to whom aid has been extended; we therefore use careful judgment in the disbursement of material relief, while we also, by encouraging words, advice and counsel, seek to improve the condition of those applying to us, and to raise them from their helplessness to a status of independent self-support. As a necessary consequence of its charter limitation the Association is debarred from applying relief to those who are confirmed paupers, and whose long continued acts show that they have become lost to all desire to aid themselves.

Some may ask, "What is the use of a society for collecting alms from one portion and disbursing them to another portion of our people. Why cannot each one for himself aid the poor and succor the distressed?" The experience and knowledge, gained by almost half a century of work, prompts the suggestion from us, that in our large cities, where multitudes are strangers to their neighbors, the selection of an approved way whereby we may, with that portion of our income which we can set apart for charity, do good, and avoid also harm to those sought to be benefited, is a perplexing question.

If we give to him that asketh at the door, or who accosts us on the street, too often we but encourage the idle and the vicious to continue to live by their wits, and thus by pauperizing the recipients of our bounty we work ill to them, and as a consequence, to the State, while also we neglect the truly worthy poor. If with a desire to avoid this we close our hearts and purses and withhold our alms, then we sin against ourselves. To investigate carefully the claims of those who ask for aid is, to most of us, impossible, because of the burden of other duties and other demands upon our time. To aid the alms-giver in this dilemma is therefore the object of this society, in following out its aim to improve the condition of the worthy poor.

By house-to-house visitation, and otherwise by earnest diligent enquiry our society has always striven to learn the circumstances of those soliciting aid, also to discover any who through sickness, accident or kindred misfortune may be in need of a helping hand. Once found, it has then been our object to apply the succor necessary in the case, and to couple the relief with such encouragement as should preserve a habit of self-help, and a feeling of manly independence.

The sharp wits of the professional letter writers and street beggars, who prey upon the community, are continually busy in the invention of pathetic, heart-rending stories, whereby to circumvent the vigilance of this Association. To hold them in check and to direct their talents into some honest channel, is the constant endeavor of the trained visitors employed by the Association. The large Library of Special Reports on these cases, which has been compiled from the information carefully gathered by these visitors, now furnishes very great aid in the work undertaken ; for the aliases, histories and other designative memoranda of these harpies is there carefully recorded as it comes to hand.

One other point ; the Association invites those who are citizens, but who, perhaps, do not realize that they should be interested in its work, to consider and ponder its relations to them as tax-payers. Formerly it was the custom for our municipal authorities to dispense out-door relief to those who were supposed to be suffering. This was done at large expense to the tax-payers, and was in many other ways a source of evil to our city. It tended to encourage a condition of pauperism by undermining pride in self-support ; for if one family in a crowded tenement received necessary assistance, others in the same house, not in need of help, nevertheless clamored for a like dole, because the impression at once gained that the city was making a general distribution. Thus all sense of shame gradually was lost, and great crowds came daily to besiege the Municipal Relief Bureau.

Owing largely to the efforts of those identified with this Association this evil has been done away with, and the city, in its corporate capacity (through the county) at present cares only for the helpless pauper class, who receive attention and support as actual inmates of our hospitals and almshouses; while the out-door relief of those who require temporary help in their own homes is administered, as far as possible, through this Association by means of resources voluntarily contributed for sweet charity's sake, and not wrung from the citizens by the tax-gatherer.

Our General Agent deserves commendation for his courtesy, extended alike to all, and for the diligence and skill with which he performs his oftentimes perplexing duties; tenderly guarding the secrets confided to him, and with all gentleness striving to aid the unfortunate.

Our much esteemed President is still active in interest in everything pertaining to the Association, and he labors constantly to advance its interest and to guard it from any wrong course or extravagance.

Our various committees and the large corps of solicitors show by their numbers and their voluntary labors that the community contains many who are willing to give kindly aid by personal services. Here let us not forget to make thankful mention also of the large body of physicians who co-operate with us in this work of reclamation; by their deeds do they prove their remembrance of Christ's words: "Inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Let all to whom this report may come resolve that during the coming season they will sustain this Association by their membership, and otherwise, with heart and hand, help to improve the condition of the poor.

All, whether members or not, are cordially invited to call at 104 Livingston street and examine the system pursued, see the report in any case they may be interested in, prove by personal test the quality of the supplies sent out, and otherwise acquaint themselves with what we are doing and how we try to do it. If our friends would kindly make such visits in the afternoon, the General Agent will then have more leisure to show them about, as the morning hours are very fully occupied in attentions to those who apply for aid.

SUMMARY.

The number of families assisted during the past year was 13,168, consisting of 59,207 persons.

During the past year, 5,144 grocery orders were issued.

One thousand two hundred and sixty-eight tons of coal were delivered, value $7,417.48, and given in one-quarter and one-half ton lots to 4,308 families.

Ninety requests for medical attendance were issued, and 193 medical prescriptions were filled at a cost of $178.09.

The whole number of packages of groceries given out amounted to 35,884.

Five hundred and seventy-six articles of second-hand clothing were given out, valued at $258.

CLOTHING COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The Ladies' Clothing Committee offers to the Board of Managers its Report for the season of 1888, from January 2d to March 15th, inclusive, it being the 11th year of its existence and the fourth of its organization as an independent committee.

It has seen in this year a greater increase in the number of its beneficiaries than during any former season, employment having been given to 436 women; 113 more than last year. Five thousand one hundred and seventy-one garments were cut out and made up, enabling us to assist 915 families with clothing. The increase over last year alone exceeds the entire amount of work done during any one of the first five years of the Committee's existence. This large amount of work taxed the capacities of our Clothing Bureau to its utmost limit. There seems to have been an unusual amount of sickness during this season, many having applied for work who have never done so before, and who, without the timely aid thus afforded, must have suffered greatly; but these exigencies have stimulated our corps of cutters to greater exertions, and they have labored untiringly, busy fingers and brains having been unwearied in their efforts to keep pace with these growing demands upon our energies. It is indeed impossible for anyone to come in contact with this class of the Society's beneficiaries without feeling the importance of the work.

Here we do not deal with that great class, the hopelessly unfortunate and incapacitated, who although requiring in common humanity to have their pressing wants supplied, yet form always so discouraging an element for charity to encounter. In the class which apply to us for sewing is found something better for which to labor; it is aid, not alms that we give to these people, and only in this spirit can we understand the thankfulness which in some cases seems quite disproportionate to the material assistance rendered. It is gratitude for timely help in the midst of struggles, with an appreciation expressed, that is dear to every womanly heart. Possibly women only can entirely understand what it is to feel, that although encompassed by the most discouraging surroundings, in the midst of circumstances calculated to drag her down at every step, there are yet intelligences and hearts which appreciate a struggling woman's efforts and understand the spirit of independence which she labors so hard to maintain. Surely she who struggles to preserve her finer instincts, in the midst of great adversity, has a moral need quite as great as bodily ones, and deserving equal consideration. Think of a mother bringing up her children in this spirit, in contrast with one content to sink into passivity as a burden upon society, and by this comparison we easily realize the worth of all endeavors which have in view the fostering of a spirit of self-reliance.

With these constantly increasing demands upon our resources it is greatly to be regretted that our Branch Committee in the Twenty-third Ward is obliged to labor under great disadvantages, in that it has no permanent headquarters. A temporary place only is rented each winter, which being simply whatever can transiently be found in as suitable a locality as possible for the required time, is usually most inadequate. During this past season it thus used an unoccupied store, which served at once as a work-room for the committee, a waiting-room for the women, and a place of storage for groceries and clothing.

In speaking of the noble interest stimulated in those actively engaged in this work, we are led to say that we have often felt it to be a cause for regret that many of the supporters of this Society who have done so much to aid it, both with gifts and sympathy, should not have taken the opportunity of seeing for themselves just what is being here accomplished, and therefore we take this opportunity of extending to them a hearty invitation to visit the clothing-rooms on any Thursday morning during the coming season. Our friends can then observe the throngs of women, which are present to receive their work. Or, if preferred, come on any Monday morning, when the clothing thus prepared is distributed to a more helpless class.

In conclusion, the Committee submits the following statistics :

PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTS

OF THE ASSOCIATION.

This Association is organized for a special purpose, and its labors are specific. It seeks to do collectively, just what the benevolent desire to do individually, viz.: to elevate the moral and physical condition of the worthy poor, and, as far as possible, relieve their necessities. It does not belong to the public at large, but to those who annually subscribe to its funds; and only such have a right to send applicants.

The following is an abstract of the fundamental rules by which the work of this Association is governed:

First—To give relief only after investigation of each case, either by visitation or through inquiry. To give only articles immediately necessary. To give assistance at the right moment, and not beyond the necessity which calls for it.

Second—To require, from every one who receives aid, abstinence from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage; that children of a proper age be kept at school, and those of suitable age be apprenticed to some trade or sent to service:—the design being to make the poor a party to their own improvement.

Third—To give no relief to recent emigrants, except in urgent cases, until they can be referred to the Commissioners of Emigration, when the responsibility of this Association towards them shall cease. The reason being that the Commissioners of Emigration are obliged by law to care for such persons, if needy, during one year after their arrival, and are provided with means for this purpose.

Fourth—To give no aid to persons, who, from infirmity, imbecility, old age, or any other cause, are unable to earn their own support, and therefore are permanently dependent. In extreme cases, or until they can be referred to the proper Institutions for permanent relief, temporary assistance may be given. Notwithstanding these persons may be worthy, they are non-improvable. The reason of this rule is, the permanently dependent are not regarded as proper subjects for relief by this Association, as we have no permanent fund.

Fifth—To discontinue relieving all who manifest a purpose to depend on alms rather than on their own exertions for support. The maintenance of these is incompatible with the objects of this Society; because such persons become so debased by continued gratuitous relief that there is no hope of inciting them to self-support, and to aid them is to encourage vice and indolence.

This Association is not intended to supersede existing charities; but, as far as practicable, to supplement them, and make them available to those for whom they are designed:—its whole aim being to help those who strive to help themselves.
